

Sources for Genealogical Research in Glarus / Switzerland

Middle Ages 6th - 15th century	Early Middle Ages	0500 - 1050	Generation 30-46	42xUr - 26xGreat-Grandparents	Civil Registers	Parish Registers	Kubly-Müller Genealogical Registers	Family Trees of Noble Families and historically important Families
	Medieval Ages	1050 - 1250	Generation 23-29	25xUr - 19xGreat-Grandparents
	Late Middle Ages	1250 - 1500	Generation 16-22	18xUr - 12xGreat-Grandparents
Early Modern Age 16th - 18th century	Period of discoveries	1500 - 1600	Generation 13-15	11xUr - 9xGreat-Grandparents	Civil Registers	Parish Registers	Kubly-Müller Genealogical Registers	Family Trees of Noble Families and historically important Families
	Reformation and religious schism	1550 - 1600
	Period of absolutism	1600 - 1800	Generation 8-12	8xUr - 4xGreat-Grandparents
	French revolution	1789 - 1799
New Modern Age 19th century	National Socialism in Europe	1800 - 1850	Generation 6-7	3xUr - 2xGreat-Grandparents	Civil Registers	Parish Registers	Kubly-Müller Genealogical Registers	Family Trees of Noble Families and historically important Families
	Industrial revolution	1800 - 1900
	Imperialism / empires	1871 - 1918	Generation 5-7	Great-Grandparents
Newest Modern Age 20th - 21st century	WWI	1914 - 1918	Generation 4	Grandparents	Civil Registers	Parish Registers	Kubly-Müller Genealogical Registers	Family Trees of Noble Families and historically important Families
	Weimar Republic	1918 - 1933
	WWII	1939 - 1945	Generation 3	Parents
	Postwar period / East-West-Conflict	1945 - 1989	Generation 2	Me
	Acutal period	1990 - 2015	Generation 1	Children

For most of the families from Glarus, family trees for the first 15 generations can be established based on the well kept parish books and the Kubly-Müller genealogical registers